Studies...

Tonight will be our last night in the "All of My Best Friends" study. Students learned what the Bible says about making friends, being a friend, and letting go of unhealthy friendships. There was much discussion between students and leadership. I am always so grateful for the input that your teens willingly share. This month we'll talk about the "Quasi Christian" and what it means to not only own our faith but to openly share it. My prayer is that students will learn to trust God with EVERY part of their life.

WHAT TO EXPECT

We will continue to follow the guidelines recommended for churches during COVID. This will include checking temperatures and wearing masks.

I want students to enjoy fellowship together despite COVID, and I have been brainstorming ideas. We are talking to Budd Creek about a possible spring retreat. I'll keep you posted on what I learn!
